

Leadership and Teambuilding

Course Specification

Duration	3 1/2 hours
Delegates	4 to 12
Presenter	Mark Taylor
Location

Learning Outcomes

- > An appreciation of individual team and leadership approaches;
- > An understanding of how different 'types' work together;
- > An overview of the team 'roles' and individual comparisons;

Outline Agenda

1. Welcome and introduction;
2. Course overview and learning outcomes;
3. The "Stranded" scenario / exercise;
4. The Belbin Self-Assessment Inventory;

Break

5. Team Comparisons and Reflections
6. Personal Action Plans: Playing to Strengths and Managing Weaknesses.

Nb.

MBTI assessment is available as a back up tool if needed.

The feedback can be conducted at individual company level or in a full session, depending on the preference of the delegates.

Material Requirements

- > A laptop and projector;
- > Copies of "Stranded";
- > Copies of the Belbin Self-Assessment Inventory;

Aftercare Support

All slides and materials will be posted on the Eriskay website. The presenter will also be happy to give feedback on individual and team outputs.